EMO coordinators Art Widnall and Bob Milne were special guests. EMO Zone 7 Field Officer Paul Werk was invited but was unable to attend. The head table consisted of Club President Charlie Lawrence - VE3EEK and Mrs. Lawrence, Vice President "JC" Bailey - VE3DGZ and Mrs. Bailey, Secretary Treasurer Jim Symonik - VE3EDA and Mrs. Symonik, Hi-Q Editor Dave Kimpton - VE3AVS and Mrs. Kimpton, and Directors Bev Biggs - VE3ECA and Mrs. Biggs, Hans R. Dornbusch - VE3EEN and Mrs Dornbusch, and Fred Lawrence - VE3EET.

Club President Charlie Lawrence - VE3EEK chaired the meeting. Dave Kimpton - VE3AVS said grace. Following dinner and the introduction of the head table and guests in the audience, the retiring President gave a month-by-month summary of the Club's activities during 1964.

The President felt the past year was one of the most active and he drew as illustrations the Club's participation in the North-Western Ontario Sportsman's Show, the out-door transmitter hunt, the downtown window displays, the Civil Defence Courses, the Field Day; and the ham picnic. Reason for the increased activity was the observance of the L.A.R.C.'s 30th Anniversary.

Bert Tamblin - VE3ANP was singled out by the President as one who has contributed unstintingly toward the betterment of the Club. The Club's highest tribute...."Life Membership"....was bestowed on Bert with the unanimous approval of the membership. Bert was presented with a framed certificate.

After brief messages from the Vice President, Secretary Treasurer and the Editor of HI-Q, the Chair was turned over to Don Brown - VE3EDJ who acted as the Chairman of Elections. The following slate of officers for 1965 was elected....

President	Ed Babudro - VE3ECU
Vice President	Dave Kimpton - VE3AVS
Secretary Treasurer	Jim Symonik - VE3EDA
1965 Directors are....	Hans R. Dornbusch - VE3EEN Fred Lawrence - VE3EET Errol Tarnow - VE3FSE
1965 Editor of HI-Q....	Barrie Walker - VE3EES

Following elections the 31st Annual Meeting adjourned to the bar and the dance floor. Winner of the spot-dance was Bill Roberts - VE3ARN. He won an electric lantern courtesy of Inter-Comm Supply. The dance ended at midnight.

Signed:

Ed Babudro - VE3ECU
President

Jim Symonik - VE3EDA
